REGENTS APPROVE APPOINTMENT OF UMM LIBRARIAN

Mr. Donald Gray, Minneapolis, has been appointed Librarian of the University of Minnesota, Morris. This action was taken at the July meeting of the Board of Regents of the University of Minnesota.

Mr. Gray is a native of Elk River, Minnesota. He attended Asbury College in Wilmore, Kentucky, where he received his B. A. degree in 1950 and Candler School of Theology at Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia, where he received a B. D. degree in 1953. From 1953 until 1959, Mr. Gray was an ordained minister of the Methodist Church, serving two pastoral charges during that time. During this past school year, Mr. Gray has been a student in the Graduate School of the University of Minnesota where he earned his M. A. degree in library science.

Mr. Gray is married and his wife, Vivian, is an elementary school teacher by training. There is one child in the family, Joni, age seven. The Grays are residing at 1008 Poughkeepsie Avenue in Morris.
